The team with the highest point total shall receive the MEAC's berth to the Cricket Celebration Bowl.

2. If the tie still exists, then the following shall be used:

MEAC FOOTBALL

MEAC HISTORY

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) enters its 51st year of intercollegiate competition with the 2021-22 academic school year. Located in Norfolk, Va., the MEAC is made up of eight outstanding historically black institutions across the Atlantic coastline: Coppin State University, Delaware State University, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, Norfolk State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State University.

The MEAC sponsors 16 Division I (FCS) sports: baseball, bowling, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track & field, softball, volleyball and men's golf. The MEAC receives automatic NCAA qualification bids in nine sports – baseball, men's and women's basketball, women's bowling, men's golf, men's and women's tennis, softball and volleyball. The MEAC's football champion is pitted against the champion of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) in the Cricket Celebration Bowl, which debuted in December 2015.

MEAC student-athletes excel on and off the field, and several have been recognized on ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America and All-District teams. The conference sponsors All-Academic teams in each of its sports and awards two post-graduate scholarships of $5,000 each annually to one male and one female student-athlete who have excelled academically and athletically and are in their final season of intercollegiate athletics eligibility and competition under MEAC and NCAA regulations.

HISTORY

In 1969, a bold ad hoc group of innovators long associated with intercollegiate athletics met in Durham, N.C. to discuss the feasibility of organizing a new conference. From these discussions, they formed a steering and planning committee to fully investigate the idea, presented a detailed report with recommendations to interested collegiate institutions, and constructed a workshop to outline proposals.

After selecting a proposal and adopting a program, seven institutions (Delaware State College, Howard University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Morgan State University, North Carolina A&T State University, North Carolina Central University and South Carolina State College) agreed to become the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. Their major objective was to establish, organize and supervise an intercollegiate athletic program among a compact group of education institutions of high academic standards with a sound philosophy of co-curricular activities. The conference agreed to seek Division I status for its sports.

The conference was confirmed in 1970, kicking off its first season of competition in football in 1971.

In 1978, the MEAC reached a milestone when it selected Kenneth A. Free to be its first full-time commissioner. Free served the conference for 18 years before stepping down in May 1996. In July 1996, Charles S. Harris was named commissioner, and he served in that capacity until April 2002. On Sept. 1, 2002, Dr. Dennis E. Thomas was named commissioner and has served in the position for 18 years.

The conference's first expansion occurred in October 1979, when Bethune-Cookman College and Florida A&M University were voted into the MEAC as new members. Original members Morgan State, North Carolina Central and Maryland Eastern Shore withdrew from the conference at the end of the 1979-80 fiscal year; Maryland Eastern Shore was readmitted in 1981 and Morgan State returned in 1984. Florida A&M opted to resign in 1984, but rejoined the conference in 1986. Coppin State College was granted admittance in 1985, becoming the ninth member institution.

The MEAC expanded again in the 1990s with the inclusion of Hampton University (1995) and Norfolk State University (1997). The conference grew once again in 2007, adding Winston-Salem State University. Winston-Salem State, a MEAC provisional member, did not meet the qualifications for Division I and withdrew from the conference following the 2009-10 academic and athletic season.

On July 1, 2010, the MEAC made its most recent expansion with the admittance of North Carolina Central and Savannah State University. On Sept. 10, 2014, the MEAC admitted Augusta University (formerly Georgia Regents University) as an associate member for men's golf. In June 2018, the MEAC added Alabama Birmingham (UAB) and Monmouth as associate members for women's bowling, effective for the 2018-19 academic year.

As of July 1, 2018, Hampton was no longer a member of the MEAC. Savannah State followed suit one year later, opting to return to the Div. II ranks.

As of July 1, 2021, Bethune-Cookman, Florida A&M and North Carolina A&T State are no longer members of the MEAC, though North Carolina A&T State does hold associate membership with the conference for the sport of women's bowling.

Augusta University, associate member for men's golf, also left the conference as of July 1, 2021.

On June 8, 1980, the MEAC was classified as a Division I conference by the NCAA; prior to that year, the conference had operated on the Division II level. The month after achieving Div. I status, the MEAC received automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. Currently, the conference has automatic qualifying bids for NCAA postseason play in baseball (since 1994), men's basketball (since 1981), women's basketball (since 1982), men's golf (since 2014), softball (since 1995), men's and women's tennis (since 1998), volleyball (since 1994) and women's bowling (since 2018).

The MEAC declares champions in eight men's sports – baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field and tennis – and eight women's sports – basketball, bowling, cross country, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, softball, tennis and volleyball.

The MEAC initiated cross country in 1980, and North Carolina A&T State earned the inaugural men's crown. The first women's cross country championship took place a year later, with Howard winning the first of its seven titles. Indoor track & field was also added in 1981, with South Carolina State winning the men's title and Howard taking the women's crown.

Tennis returned as MEAC-sponsored sports in 1981 after a five-year hiatus. South Carolina State won all seven of the conference's golf championships from 1972-83 before the sport was discontinued following the 1983 championship.

In wrestling, Morgan State won 13 of 24 conference championships before the sport was discontinued in 1995.

Baseball, which began in 1972, was discontinued following the 1977 season. It was brought back as a MEAC-governed sport, along with the addition of women's volleyball, in 1983. Women's softball became a MEAC-sanctioned sport in 1992.

MEAC HISTORY

Bowling was officially sanctioned as a MEAC sport in 1999. The MEAC was the first conference to secure NCAA sanctioning for women's bowling by adopting the club sport prior to the 1996-97 school year.

Men's golf returned as a MEAC-sponsored sport in 2014, with six teams participating in the conference championship. Bethune-Cookman was crowned the 2014 champion; the Wildcats also won the 2014 PGA Minority Collegiate Championship. Associate member Augusta University earned its first MEAC golf title in 2015, the institution's first year of conference competition, before repeating in 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

The MEAC has enjoyed tremendous athletic success over the years. In 2008, Maryland Eastern Shore defeated Arkansas State 4-2 to win the NCAA Women's Bowling National Championship, a first for both the conference and the institution. With the victory, Lady Hawks head coach Sharon Brummell became the first female head coach to win an NCAA bowling title. The Lady Hawks repeated the feat in 2011, winning the school's second NCAA bowling title; during that same season, Maryland Eastern Shore won the United States Bowling Congress (USBC) Intercollegiate Team Championship (ITC), becoming the first team to win two national championships in the same year.

In 2012, Maryland Eastern Shore captured its third NCAA bowling championship in five years with a 4-2 win over Fairleigh Dickinson. The Lady Hawks became the second team in NCAA bowling history to win three championships and the first to make four appearances in the championship finale.

In men's basketball, Maryland Eastern Shore became the first historically black college/university (HBCU) to participate in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT), doing so in 1974. The Hawks defeated Manhattan 84-81 in the first round before falling to Jacksonville in the second round. Before the Jacksonville loss, the Hawks had the nation's best record at 27-1. That same year, Morgan State won the NCAA College Division II National Championship and junior center Marvin "The Human Eraser" Webster was named the Division II Player of the Year.

Howard became the first MEAC school to play in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championships in 1981, taking on Wyoming in the first round.

Coppin State, Hampton and Norfolk State have each made history in the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament with first-round victories. Coppin State, the No. 15 seed, defeated No. 2 seed South Carolina in 1997, before Hampton repeated the No. 15-over-No. 2 upset feat in 2001 against Iowa State. Both victories have been ranked among ESPN SportsCenter's top 10 greatest tournament upsets. In 2012, Norfolk State became the fifth team in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament history (and the third MEAC team) to upset a No. 2 seed; the Spartans upended Missouri in the round of 64 that year.

Of the eight instances in which a No. 15 seed has defeated a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the MEAC boasts three of them.

Norfolk State shined on the national postseason stage again in 2019; after the Spartans won the men's basketball regular-season title, they earned an automatic bid to the NIT – where, as a No. 8 seed, they upset top seed Alabama on the Crimson Tide's home floor, 80-79 in overtime. Norfolk State became the fourth MEAC school to win an NIT game (UMES 1974, Coppin State 1995, Delaware State 2006).

In women's basketball, South Carolina State won the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) Division II National Championship in 1979. In 1982, Howard became the first MEAC school to play in the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament. In 1983, South Carolina State won the MEAC's automatic NCAA bid and became the first conference team, male or female, to win an opening-round game in the NCAA Division I Basketball Tournament.

In 2010, North Carolina A&T State defeated Wake Forest and Charlotte before falling to Miami in the third round of the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). The Lady Aggies became the first MEAC team – and first HBCU – to win two consecutive basketball games in a national postseason tournament.

In football, the MEAC was instrumental in constructing the Celebration Bowl, the Freedom Bowl All-Star Classic, the Heritage Bowl and the Gold Bowl. Prior to Division I competition, the MEAC competed in the Gold Bowl, held in Richmond, Va., which matched the MEAC champion against the champion of the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA). South Carolina State represented the MEAC in 1976 and 1979, winning both outings over Winston-Salem State and Norfolk State, respectively. In addition to the 1976 and 1979 crowns, South Carolina State won MEAC football titles in 1974-78, 1980-83, 1994, 2004, 2008, 2009. The Bulldogs were also named co-champions along with Bethune-Cookman and Florida A&M in 2010, before sharing the 2013 title with Bethune-Cookman, the 2014 title with four other teams and the 2019 title with North Carolina A&T State. During the 1981 and 1982 seasons, South Carolina State reached the second round of the NCAA Div. I-AA championships.

In 2015, the MEAC combined with the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) for the Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl in Atlanta, Ga. North Carolina A&T State defeated Alcorn State in the inaugural Celebration Bowl to determine the Black College National Champion in a game pitting the MEAC and SWAC champions. North Carolina Central represented the MEAC in the 2016 Celebration Bowl, taking on Grambling State.

North Carolina A&T State returned to the Celebration Bowl in 2017, defeating Grambling State 21-14 to complete the first undefeated season in MEAC history and claim the Aggies' second Black College National Championship in three years. North Carolina A&T State repeated in 2018, defeating Alcorn State 24-22. NCAT defeated Alcorn State again in 2019 for the Aggies' fourth Celebration Bowl win in the game's five years of existence.

The MEAC also has a strong presence in the National Football League (NFL), both throughout the league's history and today. For the start of the 2020 season, there were 12 former MEAC players on active NFL rosters – highlighted by North Carolina A&T State's Tarik Cohen and South Carolina State's Darius Leonard.

Leonard, a two-time MEAC Defensive Player of the Year, was taken in the second round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts; that same season, he was named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year after leading the league in total tackles. He was also named First Team All-Pro that season, and in 2019, Leonard was named to the Pro Bowl.

Cohen, who was named an FCS All-American and was a three-time MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, went in the fourth round of the NFL Draft to the Chicago Bears in 2017. He was named to the Pro Bowl in his second season in the league in 2018.

In 2003, Florida A&M became the first MEAC school to win a volleyball match in the NCAA Championships with a first-round victory over Winthrop. In 2004, the Lady Rattlers became the first HBCU to rank in the Top 25 of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) national poll, coming in at No. 22.

In outdoor track & field, the North Carolina Central men won the first three MEAC titles. In addition, the quartet of Melvin Bassett, Robert Ouko, Julius Sang and Larry Black set the world record in the sprint medley relay with a time of 38.19 in the 1972 Olympics. In addition, the Eagles finished fourth in the 1974 NCAA Division I Men's Outdoor Track & Field Championship. Women began outdoor track & field competition in the MEAC in 1980 – and in 1982, South Carolina State won the AIAW Division II Outdoor Track & Field National Championship.

In 2021, North Carolina A&T State became the first HBCU to finish in the top three of the team standings at the NCAA Div. I Outdoor Track & Field Championships, finishing third in the men's team standings. The Aggies won two national titles at the meet, with Randolph Ross winning the 400 meters and the 4x400-meter relay team winning gold (to go along with the gold medal they won earlier that year in the NCAA indoor meet). On the women's side, Cambrea Sturgis gave the MEAC two more national titles, winning NCAA crowns in the 100 and 200 meters.

The MEAC has showcased over 35 athletes in the Olympics over the years, and 13 of them have earned medals during the Summer Games.

At No. 72, South Carolina State became the first MEAC women's tennis team to finish the season ranked in the 2005 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Division I final poll. In 2012, South Carolina State's Maria Craciun became the first tennis player in school and MEAC history to receive a berth to the NCAA Individual Singles Championship.

In Augusta's seven seasons as an associate member for men's golf, the Jaguars won the conference championship in five of those years. In 2018, Augusta not only won the MEAC title and made it to the NCAA Men's Golf Championship, but senior Broc Everett wrapped up his collegiate career by winning the NCAA individual national championship, defeating Auburn's Brandon Mancheno in a playoff.

In softball, Bethune-Cookman earned the MEAC's first-ever at-large bid to the NCAA Softball Championship in 2005. The Lady Wildcats defeated Florida, Central Florida and South Florida in the Florida Regional to become the first MEAC program to win an NCAA Division I Softball Regional. Bethune-Cookman ended the 2005 season with the conference's first-ever national ranking, reaching No. 18 in the season's final NFCA/USA Today Coaches poll and No. 23 in the USA Softball/ESPN.com poll.

Florida A&M was the first MEAC baseball team to advance to NCAA postseason play in 1994. The Rattlers took on Southeastern Louisiana in a best-of-three play-in series, falling 11-10 and 8-7 in two games. During the 2002 season, Bethune-Cookman advanced to the Gainesville Regional and became the first MEAC team to win a game in the NCAA Tournament with a 7-4 victory over Florida International. In 2017, the Wildcats became the first MEAC school to advance to a regional final, winning three games in the Gainesville Regional – including a 6-2 win over national No. 3 seed Florida.

2020-21 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) celebrated its 50th anniversary during the 2020-21 academic year, reliving its golden past and looking forward to a glorious future. But the year was also unlike any other, as the MEAC's 11 member institutions continued to navigate the COVID-19 pandemic. Bethune-Cookman and Maryland Eastern Shore opted out of competition for the entirety of 2020-21, and the MEAC did not hold championships in for cross country, football or indoor track & field, but there was still plenty of action and outstanding performances on the fields, courts and tracks.

North Carolina A&T State Sweeps All-Sports Awards

North Carolina A&T State swept the Talmadge Layman Hill Men's and Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Awards for 2020-21. It marked the second straight year in which the awards were given that NCAT swept both trophies.

No all-sports awards were handed out in 2019-20.

On the men's side, the Aggies racked up 63 points, thanks to the regular-season division championship in basketball and the outdoor track & field championship, as well as runner-up finishes in tennis and golf.

For the women, North Carolina A&T State totaled 80 points after grabbing regular-season division titles in women's basketball, bowling, volleyball and softball, while also winning the outdoor track & field championship. Overall, the Aggies also won tournament crowns in women's basketball, bowling and volleyball.

Men's Indoor Track & Field

Even though the MEAC didn't hold an indoor track & field championship meet in 2020-21 because of how many programs opted out of the indoor season, North Carolina A&T State competed and excelled – all the way to the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships. The Aggie quartet of Daniel Stokes, Elijah Young, Trevor Stewart and Randolph Ross won the NCAA championship in the men's 4x400-meter relay with the fifth-fastest time in NCAA history, a 3:03.16. It was the first national title for the Aggie men, and the first for a MEAC program since 2018, when North Carolina A&T State's Kayla White (women's 200 meters) and South Carolina State's Tyrell Richard (men's 400 meters) won NCAA titles.

Men's Basketball

The 2020-21 MEAC basketball season saw division play in an effort to reduce travel and missed class time in light of the pandemic. Coppin State and Norfolk State split the Northern Division regular-season crown, while North Carolina A&T State was the Southern Division champion. Brothers Anthony and Nendah Tarke of Coppin State swept the MEAC's regular-season player awards; Anthony was named both Player and Defensive Player of the Year (the first to win both awards since Norfolk State's Kyle O'Quinn in 2011-12) and Nendah was named Rookie of the Year. Florida A&M's Robert McCullum was named MEAC Coach of the Year. Norfolk State won the 2021 Air Force Reserve MEAC Basketball Tournament at the Norfolk Scope Arena with a 71-63 win over Morgan State. Joe Bryant, Jr. was the tournament's Outstanding Performer, while Robert Jones was named Outstanding Coach. It was the Spartans' first MEAC Tournament title since 2012, and they went on to the NCAA First Four, where they took on – and defeated – Appalachian State before falling to top overall seed Gonzaga. It marked Norfolk State's second-ever NCAA Tournament victory, following the program's 2012 upset of No. 2 seed Missouri.

Women's Basketball

Howard and North Carolina A&T State were the respective division winners for MEAC women's basketball in 2020-21; the Bison claimed the Northern Division title after going 10-2 in conference play, while the Aggies' 9-1 mark in the Southern Division locked up the regular-season crown and the corresponding top seed in the 2021 Air Force Reserve MEAC Basketball Tournament. Howard's Jayla Thornton, the MEAC's all-time leading career 3-point shooter, was named MEAC Player of the Year, while teammate Anzhane' Hutton took home Rookie of the Year honors and Ty Grace was named Coach of the Year. North Carolina Central's Anissa Rivera was named Defensive Player of the Year. The two top seeds met in the championship game of the tournament at the Norfolk Scope Arena, with the Aggies prevailing 59-57 thanks to a 3-pointer from Deja Winters with three seconds remaining. North Carolina A&T State won its third MEAC title in the last six years; Jayla Jones-Pack was named Outstanding Performer and Tarrell Robinson earned Outstanding Coach honors. The Aggies faced N.C. State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Bowling

North Carolina A&T State won the regular-season title thanks to a 7-1 mark in the MEAC's regular-season meet in Greensboro, N.C. The Aggies won six tournaments during the regular season and finished no worse than third in the Music City Classic. North Carolina A&T State's Cameron Strombeck was named MEAC Bowler of the Year after being named the Preseason Bowler of the Year before the season started, while Kim Terrell-Kearney earned Coach of the Year honors. Delaware State's Alyssa Breidegam was named Rookie of the Year. The Aggies were the top seed in the MEAC Bowling Championship, and they came from behind to defeat associate member Monmouth 4-2 in the championship match. Melanie Katen was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer, and Terrell-Kearney was named Outstanding Coach. North Carolina A&T State and Delaware State both advanced to the NCAA Bowling Championship, with the Hornets earning an at-large bid, and the Aggies also competed in the United States Bowling Congress (USBC) Intercollegiate Team Championship, finishing runner-up. In the USBC's Individual Singles Championship, North Carolina A&T State's Ana Olaya was a semifinalist and Delaware State's Katie Robb won the national championship, becoming the first Hornet to do so.

Volleyball

With the 2020 volleyball season pushed to the spring because of COVID-19, teams competing found themselves focusing primarily on conference play and jockeying for position in a smaller postseason tournament field. Coppin State and North Carolina A&T State won their respective divisions; the Eagles won the Northern Division for the first time in program history, while the Aggies went a perfect 8-0 to claim the Southern Division. North Carolina A&T State's Edie Brewer earned MEAC Player of the Year honors for the second straight season, while Coppin State boasted the Rookie of the Year (Chudear Tut), Setter of the Year (Kareemah Hopkins), Defensive Player of the Year (Ashley Roman) and Coach of the Year (Tim Walsh). With Norfolk State hosting the MEAC Volleyball Championship, Coppin State, Delaware State, North Carolina A&T State and North Carolina Central made up the tournament field. The top seeds advanced to the championship match, where the Aggies defeated Coppin State in four sets for their first-ever MEAC volleyball title. Brewer was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer, while Hal Clifton earned Outstanding Coach honors. North Carolina A&T State advanced to the NCAA Volleyball Championship in Omaha, Neb., where they faced nationally-ranked Penn State in the second round after COVID protocols knocked out their first-round match-up against Rice.

Men's Golf

The 2021 MEAC Men's Golf Championship shifted venues, heading to Bryan Park Golf Club in Greensboro, N.C. Five-time defending champion and men's golf associate member Augusta University was not able to compete due to COVID protocols, opening the tournament to the other four teams in the field – Florida A&M, first-year program Howard, North Carolina A&T State and North Carolina Central. The Rattlers took advantage of the opportunity in front of them, winning the tournament by 19 strokes for their first-ever MEAC title in the sport. Ethan Mangum was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer after winning the individual title – a strong performance that included him shooting under par in the first round, making him the only player in the field to do so. Mike Rice was named the tournament's Outstanding Coach, leading the Rattlers to three of the top four positions on the leaderboard. Florida A&M, which also finished third in the PGA WORKS Collegiate in May, advanced to compete in the NCAA regional tournament in Tallahassee, Fla., hosted by Florida State.

Men's Tennis

Norfolk State and South Carolina State were the class of the MEAC field in men's tennis this past season, with both teams going undefeated in conference play to win the Northern and Southern Divisions, respectively. The Spartans' Andres Alcaraz was named MEAC Player of the Year, while North Carolina Central's Stipan Madzar earned Rookie of the Year honors. Norfolk State's Larry Holmes and South Carolina State's Hardeep Judge split Coach of the Year honors, and the two coaches ended up squaring off for the MEAC tournament title, as the Spartans and Bulldogs advanced to the championship match at Old Dominion's Folkes-Stevens Tennis Center. South Carolina State defeated Norfolk State 4-0 for the title, the program's 16th title overall and 13th in the last 16 years. The Bulldogs' Elyes Marouani was named Outstanding Performer after earning the clinching point, and Judge was named Outstanding Coach. The Bulldogs made yet another NCAA appearance, going up against Wake Forest in the first round.

Women's Tennis

Norfolk State and South Carolina State both went undefeated in the regular season to claim their respective division regular-season titles and corresponding No. 1 seeds in the MEAC Tennis Championships. South Carolina State's Rachida Berjane was named MEAC Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, becoming the first player to win both awards in the same season since Bethune-Cookman's Mina Matsuba in 2014. Larry Holmes of Norfolk State was named Coach of the Year after leading the Spartans to the Northern Division title in his first season at the helm. South Carolina State squared off against Florida A&M in the championship match of the conference tournament, winning 4-0 for their 15th overall title and the 14th in their last 16 years. Lasya Patnaik was named Outstanding Performer and Judge was against named the tournament's Outstanding Coach. The Bulldogs advanced to the NCAA Women's Tennis Championship, taking on top overall seed North Carolina in the first round.

Men's Outdoor Track & Field

With nine of the MEAC's 11 member institutions competing, North Carolina A&T State dominated its way to a fourth straight MEAC outdoor championship with a meet-record 288 points at Irwin Belk Track. Norfolk State was second with 174 points while Morgan State, Delaware State and Howard rounded out the top five in the team standings. The Aggies won every race on Saturday's round of finals, and Javonte Harding was named the meet's Outstanding Runner after winning the 100 meters, 200 meters and having a hand in winning gold in both the 4x100- and 4x400-meter relays. Morgan State's John Purvis was named the meet's Outstanding Field Performer and Duane Ross was the Outstanding Coach.

Women's Outdoor Track & Field

Eight of the MEAC's 11 member institutions converged on Irwin Belk Track in Greensboro, N.C., and North Carolina A&T State took advantage of the de facto home meet to win their third outdoor title in the last four years. Norfolk State was second with 144 points, and the rest of the top five comprised of Howard, Morgan State and Delaware State. The Aggies racked up a meet-record 290 points to win the title, dominating championship Saturday to the tune of winning all but three races on the day and sweeping the podium in the 800 meters and 100-meter hurdles. The Aggies' G'Jasymne Butler, who won the 3,000-meter steeplechase and 800 meters, was named Outstanding Runner, while teammate Loren James earned Outstanding Field Performer honors and Duane Ross was again named Outstanding Coach.

Softball

Softball was one of several sports to see a smaller postseason tournament field this past season, with teams fighting for four spots instead of eight. Morgan State and North Carolina A&T State were the regular-season champions in the Northern and Southern Divisions, respectively, and the tournament field consisted of Morgan State, tournament host Norfolk State, North Carolina A&T State and North Carolina Central. Howard's Camille Navarro was named MEAC Player of the Year, with teammate Kiana Carr earning Pitcher of the Year honors. North Carolina A&T State's Kendall Macauley was named Rookie of the Year and Norfolk State's James Inzana was named Coach of the Year. The Bears and Eagles met in the championship game, with Morgan State coming from behind to win the game 10-5 and claim its first-ever MEAC softball title. Stephanie Rundlett of Morgan State, who won all three tournament games in the circle, was named Outstanding Performer, and Larry Hine-line was named Outstanding Coach. The Bears advanced to the NCAA Softball Championship, going to the Norman Regional to face top overall seed Oklahoma and Texas A&M.

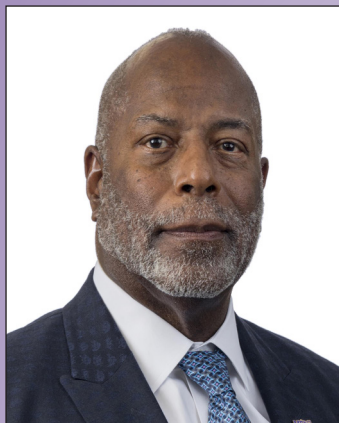

Baseball

Six of the MEAC's eight baseball-playing institutions took to the diamond in 2021, with four spots in the postseason tournament on the line. Norfolk State and North Carolina Central won the Northern and Southern Divisions, respectively, and were the top seeds in the double-elimination tournament at Norfolk State's Marty L. Miller Field. Norfolk State two-way player Danny Hosley was named MEAC Player of the Year, while North Carolina Central earned Rookie of the Year (Chet Sikes), Pitcher of the Year (Ryan Miller) and Coach of the Year (Jim Koerner) honors. The Spartans and Eagles met in a championship game for the ages; North Carolina Central led 4-2 after seven innings, but Norfolk State scored in the eighth and ninth innings to force extras. Then, with the bases loaded in the 11th inning, Alsander Womack hit a walkoff single to center that gave Norfolk State its first-ever MEAC baseball championship. Womack was named the tournament's Outstanding Performer and Keith Shumate was named Outstanding Coach. Norfolk State earned the MEAC's automatic bid to the NCAA Baseball Championship and competed in the Greenville Regional, taking on No. 13 national seed East Carolina and Maryland.

COMMISSIONER DENNIS E. THOMAS

Dr. Dennis E. Thomas enters his 20th year as Commissioner of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) on Sept. 1, 2021, spearheading a period of two decades that has seen the conference remain financially stable, strengthen institutional compliance and improve student-athlete graduation rates. In the process, he has gained the distinction as one of leading collegiate athletics administrators in America.

Being progressive, Commissioner Thomas has still been able to give fans an avenue for wholesome sports participation by inking a deal with GYO Score to create the conference's Esports Community.

In 2010, Commissioner Thomas realized one of his goals with the purchasing of the conference's first office complex. The official headquarters, located in Norfolk, Va., marks the first time an FCS conference has owned its headquartered property without assessing MEAC institutions. A revolutionary, one year later, Commissioner Thomas accomplished another first as he led the MEAC to become the first NCAA Division I FCS conference to institute instant replay during its televised regular-season football games, a feat that was accomplished in 2011.

Thomas' mission to increase the conference's corporate resources has led to multi-year partnerships with Russell Athletic Corporation, Coca-Cola, State Farm Insurance, Nike, Wells Fargo, ESPN, Jostens, United States Marines, Home Depot, Geico, Colgate Palmolive and the National Football League (NFL). Commissioner Thomas was instrumental in forging a partnership with the NFL to improve officiating and provide access for MEAC officials to advance to the next level. In May 2016, Commissioner Thomas also helped broker an off-the-field partnership between the NFL and the MEAC to boost opportunities for non-playing careers in professional football.

In 2017, the MEAC partnered with Collegiate Sports Management Group (CSMG), entering into a multi-year agreement in an effort to increase the conference's corporate partnerships and branding. The relationship focuses on marketing and sponsorship rights, as well as helping to develop more national strategies across all avenues to assist with generating revenue for the conference and MEAC institutions.

Under Commissioner Thomas' leadership and financial awareness, MEAC member institutions have received end-of-the-year financial distributions for 19 consecutive years.

In 2004, Commissioner Thomas recommended to ESPN the development of the Celebration Bowl, pitting the champions of the MEAC and the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) together in a bowl game. The first two editions were played in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., with the MEAC winning the inaugural contest in 2015 when North Carolina A&T State defeated Alcorn State 41-34. Beginning in 2017, the Celebration Bowl shifted venues, as the new Mercedes-Benz Stadium opened in downtown Atlanta.

Committed to equal opportunities, Commissioner Thomas has bolstered the conference's television footprint when it comes to the Olympic sports. In February 2017, the conference broadcast the MEAC Indoor Track & Field Championships, for the first time ever, on ESPN3. ESPN3 also broadcast the league's Bowling Championship and Outdoor Track & Field Championship for the first time in 2018. In addition, the conference's Volleyball Championship final has been broadcast on ESPNU every year since 2014; that initial broadcast marked the first time in the conference's history that the volleyball championship had been televised.

During his tenure, Commissioner Thomas has been a proponent of MEAC student-athletes being strong on the field as well as in the classroom. His vision to reward academic excellence was implemented with the start of the Highest Graduation Award for member institutions with the best graduation rate for the academic year. The institution that achieves that honor is awarded $25,000.

In 2006, Commissioner Thomas implemented the MEAC Woman of the Year honor. The award celebrates the achievements of female senior student-athletes who have excelled in academics, athletics, community service and leadership. In 2012, the MEAC introduced and recognized the MEAC Man of the Year award in conjunction with the women's top honor.

The 2019-20 academic year saw Thomas inducted into the Black College Football Hall of Fame, and he was also named to the Board of Directors for the National Football Foundation (NFF). Commissioner Thomas has brought a wealth of collegiate administrative and higher education experience to the MEAC. Prior to becoming Commissioner, he served as Director of Athletics at Hampton University in Hampton, Va. In his 12 years of service, Hampton excelled on and off the field of competition. In addition to guiding Hampton from the NCAA Division II level to Division I, he demonstrated a strong commitment to student-athletes during his tenure by developing the Athletic Academic Support unit to increase graduation rates.

Under Commissioner Thomas' leadership, Hampton won 17 Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Division II championships between 1990 and 1995 and 11 MEAC championships between 1996 and 2002. Hampton was awarded the MEAC's top honors with the 1999 Talmadge L. Hill All-Sports Award and the 2002 Mary McLeod Bethune Women's All-Sports Award, symbolizing the overall strength of the athletics program.

Commissioner Thomas' term at Hampton also marked the Pirates men's basketball team's remarkable win over Iowa State University, 58-57, in the first round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament. The historic win was accentuated when the Pirates returned to the NCAA Tournament the following year. No other No. 15 seed winner had returned to the tournament in consecutive years after accomplishing the feat.

Commissioner Thomas served as the head football coach at South Carolina State University from 1986-88, where he compiled a record of 15-18.

Commissioner Thomas' leadership and managerial skills among national organizations has not gone unnoticed. He was awarded the National Association of Collegiate Director of Athletics (NACDA) Athletics Director of the Year Award for the Southeast Region (I-AA/AAA) in 2002. In 2001, he served as Chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Football Committee. He also served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and is a former member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Commissioner Thomas has served as a member of the NCAA Division I Leadership Council and the NCAA I-FCS Governance Committee, and he was a member and chair of the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions and the NLI Policy and Review Committee. He has also served as the chair of the NCAA Division I-AA (FCS) Commissioners Association and he served on the NACDA Executive Committee and the Walter Byers Scholarship Committee.

Commissioner Thomas was inducted into Hampton University's inaugural Athletics Hall of Fame Class in 2009. He has also been enshrined into the Alcorn State University (Miss.) Hall of Fame (2010), the Southwestern Athletic Conference Hall of Fame (2003) and the Black College Football Hall of Fame (2020).

A native of Heidelberg, Miss., Commissioner Thomas was a four-year letterman in football and track and field in high school, and at the age of 16, he embarked upon a collegiate career that is still in the SWAC's record books. In 1973, he made history as the first and only offensive lineman to be named the conference's Offensive Player of the Year. He finished his collegiate career as a three-year letterman at Alcorn State, a two-time Pittsburgh Courier First Team All-American (1972-73), First Team Black Mutual Sports Network All-American (1973) and the Outstanding College Athlete of America (1974).

While at Alcorn State, Commissioner Thomas coached and played under the legendary coach Marino "The Godfather" Casem. During his playing and coaching tenure at Alcorn State, the Braves won SWAC football championships in 1970 as a player and 1976, 1979 and 1984 as an assistant coach.

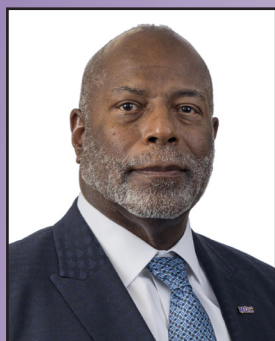

In 1978, the state legislature in Mississippi proclaimed April 8 as the "Dennis and Johnny Day" in the state, recognizing Commissioner Thomas and his brother for their achievements in scholarship, athletics and leadership.

Commissioner Thomas earned his Bachelor's degree from Alcorn State University. He later earned his Master's from the University of Louisiana at Monroe and his doctorate degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Commissioner Thomas is a proud lifetime member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

PRESEASON AWARDS / HONORS

Juwan Carter -- QB, Norfolk State
2021 MEAC Preseason Offensive Player of the Year

Norfolk State quarterback Juwan Carter and South Carolina State defensive back Decobie Durant have been named Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Offensive and Defensive Preseason Players of the Year, presented by TowneBank.

Additionally, South Carolina State is the preseason favorite to win the MEAC this season, picking up five out of a possible 12 first-place votes.

All awards and the predicted order of finish were voted on by the MEAC's head football coaches and sports information directors.

Carter was second in the MEAC in passing in 2019, averaging 219.2 yards per game through the air. He was also second in pass efficiency (146.5) and total offense (238.0 yards/game). His 23 touchdowns that season were tied for the most in the league, and Carter completed a MEAC-best 60.6 percent of his passes.

The Spartans did not play this past season.

Durant led the MEAC in passes defended in 2019, totaling 15 (12 pass breakups and three interceptions). His three picks were tied for the second-most in the conference. He also had five pass breakups and four interceptions for the Bulldogs in four games this past spring.

Rod Milstead is in his third full season as head coach of the Hornets. One of the most decorated players in the history of the Delaware State University football program, he was appointed as head coach at his alma mater on Jan. 30, 2018.

In December 2020, he was selected for induction into the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Hall of Fame. The induction ceremony is scheduled for March 2021.

In his second season as head coach, Milstead led the Hornets to a 16-13 victory over (then) MEAC co-leader Bethune-Cookman, snapping a six-game losing streak to the Wildcats.

Also in 2019, Delaware State was fifth in the MEAC in rushing at 140.8 yards per game, while rushing for 14 touchdowns, the most by the Hornets since tallying 17 in 2008.

Off the field, the 2019-20 Hornets posted a combined 3.05 grade point average (GPA) for the spring semester and 2.9 GPA for the entire year.

Milstead was a standout offensive lineman for the Hornets from 1988 to '91 before an eight-year career in the National Football League.

During his tenure as a Hornets' player, Milstead was a three-time All-MEAC First Team selection (1989, '90, '91); and a 1991 Associated Press, Walter Camp and Sheridan Black College All-America First Team pick.

He helped lead Delaware State to the 1989 MEAC championship and a share of the conference title in 1988 and '91. In addition, he helped pave the way to the Hornets' No. 1 ranking among all Division I-AA (now FCS) teams in rushing at 300.2 yards per game in 1990.

Delaware State named Milstead as its Male Athlete of the Year and Senior Male Athlete of the Year in 1992. He was inducted into the Hornets' Athletic Hall-of-Fame in 2003.

Milstead earned a bachelor's in Sociology/Criminal Justice from Delaware State in 1992.

Following his collegiate career, Milstead was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the 1992 NFL Draft. After several weeks in the Cowboys' training camp, he was traded to the Cleveland Browns, where he played two seasons.

In 1994, Milstead signed with the San Francisco 49ers, where he joined former Hornet star wide receiver John Taylor.

Milstead was a member of San Francisco's 1995 Super Bowl champion squad. The Niners captured the title with a 49-26 win over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX in Miami, Fla.

In four seasons with the 49ers (1994-97), Milstead competed in 36 games, including 12 starts.

He completed his professional playing career after two seasons with the Washington Redskins (1998-99), during which he appeared in 20 games, starting 11.

In 2013, Milstead was offensive line coach at Delaware State's Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rival North Carolina Central University.

HEAD COACH LARRY SCOTT

With 14 years of collegiate coaching experience that includes 10 postseason bowl/playoff game appearances and six wins, Larry Scott joins Howard University as the head football coach, the university announced on February 6, 2020.

The Sebring, Fla., native has spent a majority of his coaching career in the state of Florida, where he attended (1997-99) and coached (2006-12) at USF as well as Miami (2013-15) and most recently Florida (2018-2020). Prior to joining the Florida coaching staff Scott was a member of Ethan Wolfe staff at the University of Tennessee (2016-17).

A graduate from the University of South Florida in 2000, Scott played offensive lineman for the Bulls. After four seasons of high school coaching experience, Scott joined the USF staff in 2005 as Director of High School Relations. During his time at USF, Scott coached the offensive line, tight ends and running backs as well as serving as a lead recruiter.

Scott helped lead the Bulls to their best recruiting class in program history in 2008 only to surpass that class with the nation's No. 21 ranked class in 2009.

During his time in Coral Gables, Scott served as the Hurricanes' tight ends coach for two-plus seasons (2013-15) prior to being named their interim head coach for the final six games of 2015. As Miami's interim coach, Scott led the Hurricanes to a 4-2 mark and a berth in the Sun Bowl.

Scott has spent the two seasons with Dan Mullen as the assistant coach and tight ends coach at Florida, where he guided his position group to multiple personal bests and better numbers than in years prior.

Scott helped devise game plans each week that allowed 11 different Gators to record a touchdown reception in 2018 and 10 in 2019.

Blocking was a huge emphasis for Scott and his student-athletes, that attention to detail throughout the offseason and practice paid off as Florida's running backs totaled 2,771 yards rushing on 526 attempts in 2018. He concluded the 2019 season with 1,956 yards rushing on 398 attempts.

Scott helped Ethan Wolf cap his career in 2017 as one of the greatest tight ends in Rocky Top history. Wolf ranked No. 2 among UT tight ends in career receptions (91) and No. 3 in receiving yards (998) and led the Vols with 47 starts.

Tennessee's offense in 2017 saw running back John Kelly (778 rush yards, 37 catches) join Penn State's Saquon Barkley (1,271 rush yards, 54 catches) as the only two players in the Power 5 to lead their teams in rushing and receptions.

In 2016, Tennessee averaged 24.9 yards on 42 kickoff returns and 11.1 yards on 33 punt returns while punter Trevor Daniel averaged 44.6 yards per punt and kicker Aaron Medley scored 94 points (11 field goals, 61 extra points) while booting a personal-best 45 touchbacks on kickoffs.

UT's tight ends combined for 45 receptions, 499 yards and two touchdowns in 2016 and helped pave the way for 2,668 rushing yards (5.2-yard average). Scott tutored fifth-year senior Jason Croom, who made the transition from wide receiver to tight end in 2016, to 21 catches for 242 yards on the season.

Scott spent two-plus seasons as the Hurricanes' tight ends coach prior to being named their interim head coach for the final six games of 2015. As Miami's interim head coach, Scott led the Hurricanes to a 4-2 mark and a berth in the Sun Bowl.

In 2014, Scott oversaw a tight end unit that combined for 52 receptions and 833 yards receiving. He also mentored Clive Walford, who had a breakout 2014 campaign where he led the team in receptions with 44. Under Scott's watchful eye, Walford earned third team All-America and second team All-ACC honors.

Following the year, Walford was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

MORGAN STATE BEARS

HEAD COACH TYRONE WHEATLEY

Tyrone Wheatley enters his third season as the head coach of the Morgan State football program, but second on the sideline. The Bears did not play during the 2020-21 school year due to the COVID-19 pandemic; however, Wheatley is looking to build on the foundation he set in year one with the Bears.

Introduced as the 22nd head coach in Morgan football history on Feb. 21, 2019, Wheatley took the helm of the Bears after establishing an extensive coaching résumé and tremendous success, both as a player and as a coach, at the professional and collegiate levels.

Wheatley's first season at Morgan was highlighted by a Homecoming rout of Delaware State and an upset victory against nationally-ranked North Carolina A&T. Additionally, five Bears collected All-MEAC honors (Ian McBorrough, Rico Kennedy, Malachi Washington, Carl Garnes and Manasseh Bailey,) including two All-Americans (McBorrough and Kennedy) and one NFL undrafted free agent selection (Bailey).

Morgan's total offense averaged 315.9 yards per game, 194.8 passing yards, while converting 37.4 percent on third downs. The Bears were also the second least penalized team in the conference (75-56.3).

Additionally, Wheatley stressed academic success in his first season on Cold Spring Lane, and several Bears were standouts in the classroom. Since Wheatley arrived on campus:

- * McBorrough was named to FCS ADA Academic All-Star Team

- * McBorrough and Deontaye White were named to 2020 NFF Hampshire Honor Society

- * Seventeen Bears were selected to the 2019 MEAC All-Academic Team

Wheatley joined the Bears after serving the last two seasons under head coach Doug Marrone, as the running backs coach for the National Football League's (NFL) Jacksonville Jaguars. Wheatley also worked with Marrone at Syracuse University from 2010-12, and then with the Buffalo Bills from 2013-14.

As a college assistant coach, Wheatley was one of Michigan's best recruiters and ranked No. 6 nationally on 247Sports "recruiter rankings."

Wheatley finished his Michigan football playing career as the program's second-leading rusher (now fifth). He was the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1992, and also earned All-America honors in the 110-meter hurdles as a track athlete in 1995. He enjoyed a 10-year career in the NFL before starting his coaching career.

Wheatley guided the running backs for the Buffalo Bills from 2013-14 under head coach Doug Marrone. During his time with the Bills, he mentored pros like Fred Jackson and C.J. Spiller. The Bills averaged 3.7 yards per rush in 2014, and 4.2 yards per rush in 2013.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Wheatley spent five seasons in the collegiate ranks. From 2010-2012, he coached running backs at Syracuse University. While with the Orange, he coached Delone Carter to a 1,000-yard season in 2010 and a second-team All-Big East selection. He also helped Syracuse win two Pinstripe Bowls during his tenure (2010, 2012).

Wheatley spent one year each at Eastern Michigan University (2009) and Ohio Northern University (2008) as the running backs coach. At EMU he also served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Wheatley got his start in coaching at his high school alma mater, Robichaud located in Dearborn Heights, Mich. in 2007. He took a team that had gone 0-9 before his arrival and led them to a 9-2 record and appearance in the state playoffs. He also coached track and field.

Shortly after retiring from the NFL, Wheatley held two appointments as a Minority Coaching Fellow in the league, first with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2006) and then with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2008). While completing his degree at U-M in kinesiology, Wheatley served as a volunteer assistant with the Michigan track and field program (2005-06).

Wheatley played 10 seasons in the NFL after being selected 17th overall by the New York Giants in the 1995 draft. He played in New York through the 1998 season, and then joined the Oakland Raiders. Wheatley played with the Raiders from 1999-2004 and appeared in the 2003 Super Bowl. During his playing career he amassed 6,562 all-purpose yards as a running back and kick returner, and he scored 47 touchdowns.

HEAD COACH DAWSON ODUMS

Dawson Odums, a championship coach with a track record of developing student-athletes both on and off the field during his collegiate coaching career, is in his first year as the head football coach at Norfolk State University. He was named the 18th head coach in Spartan history on April 21, 2021.

A native of Shelby, N.C., Odums has more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience. Most recently, Odums enjoyed a stellar 10-year run in the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) at Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Odums directed Southern to a winning record in each of his eight full seasons at the helm of the program, including a 5-1 mark in the abbreviated 2021 spring season. In his last five seasons, the Jaguars posted a 29-6 SWAC record. His overall record with the Jaguars was 63-35.

After joining the Jaguars as defensive line coach in 2011, Odums was elevated to interim head coach two games into the 2012 season before earning the permanent head coach position following the year. On the field, Odums led Southern to a 53-17 SWAC mark over the last nine seasons. His ledger includes one SWAC championship (2013), one SWAC Coach of the Year honor (2013) and four SWAC West Division titles (2013, '14, '18, '19).

Odums' teams at Southern excelled in all three phases of the game. In the 2021 spring season, Southern ranked first nationally in blocked punts, second in third-down conversions, fifth in sacks and eighth in scoring offense. Southern finished the year ranked 20th in the FCS Top 25 Coaches Poll. Defensive end Jordan Lewis brought distinction to the Jaguars by winning the Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the top defensive player in the Division I FCS. Lewis, who led the country in sacks and tackles for loss, also won SWAC Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Southern posted top-20 total offenses in 2015 and 2016 and a No. 13 mark in rushing offense en route to a SWAC West title in 2019. Odums' squads ranked in the top 10 in the FCS in punt return average four times, including leading the country in 2017, and also ranked top-10 in kickoff return average twice.

The 2013 season was a special one for Odums. His first full year as head coach at Southern culminated in a double-overtime SWAC championship game victory over Jackson State. The win made Odums just the second coach in Southern history to win a SWAC divisional title, outright SWAC championship and SWAC Coach of the Year honors in his first year as head coach.

The Jaguars went 9-4 that year, one of four seasons in which they won at least eight games on Odums' watch. They also won nine games and captured the divisional title the following year, 2014.

Six players coached by Odums have signed with teams in the NFL or CFL. That list includes SWAC all-time leading rusher Lenard Tillery and Southern's all-time leader in receiving yards and return touchdowns, Willie Quinn. Former Jaguars defensive back Danny Johnson is on the roster of the Washington Football Team.

Jaguar student-athletes have also performed well in the classroom. Fifty-seven Southern players earned Dean's List honors during the fall 2020 semester. Under Odums' guidance, Southern's APR score has steadily risen, reaching a multi-year rate of 952 in the last NCAA report of his tenure there.

Odums' other coaching stints include a pair of stops in the MEAC. He spent three seasons at North Carolina A&T (2008-10), serving first as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator and then as defensive coordinator. The Aggies' special teams units thrived under his leadership, returning four kicks for touchdowns and blocking three kicks in 2010. That came on the heels of a 2009 season in which the Aggies blocked five kicks.

In 2010, Brandon Jackson became the first Aggie in five seasons to record more than 100 tackles in a season, finishing with 106. D'Vonte Graham led the MEAC in interceptions with seven. The year prior saw Jarrell Her-ring earn first-team All-MEAC honors at defensive end.

Odums' first stint in the MEAC came as defensive line coach at Bethune-Cookman from 2005-07. Over Odums' three-year span there, the Wildcats run defense was among the stingiest in the MEAC. In 2007, the Wildcats defense ranked third in the conference in rush defense and third in total defense. Odums also worked with the Wildcats special teams units and scouted opposing teams' special teams personnel.

HEAD COACH TREI OLIVER

With 20 years of college coaching experience that includes five conference championships and three black college football national titles, Trei Oliver returned to his alma mater as North Carolina Centrals 24th head football coach.

A native of Yorktown, Va., Oliver earned all-conference and all-region honors as a defensive back and punter during his four-year playing career at NCCU from 1994-97. The 1998 graduate later returned to NCCU as an assistant coach from 2003-06, helping the Eagles to back-to-back Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) championships in 2005 and 2006.

Oliver returned to NCCU as head coach after spending the previous three seasons (2016-18) as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Southern University. The Jaguars are coming off a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) West division championship and a trip to the SWAC championship game.

In the prior 15 seasons (2004-18) as a coach at four different universities, Oliver has been a part of only one season with fewer than seven wins. During that time, he has celebrated 124 victories for an average of more than eight triumphs per year and a winning percentage of .725.

Prior to Southern University, Oliver served as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at North Carolina A&T State University from 2011-15, when the Aggies shared consecutive Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championships in 2014 and 2015, and were declared the black college football national champions in his final campaign in Greensboro as winners of the Celebration Bowl with a 10-2 overall record.

In four seasons at Grambling State University from 2007-10 as the outside linebackers coach, recruiting coordinator and special teams coordinator, the Tigers earned two SWAC West division crowns, and won the SWAC championship game and a black college football national title in 2008 with an 11-2 record.

Oliver's first coaching stint at NCCU was as a defensive backs and wide receivers coach, recruiting coordinator and special teams coordinator from 2003-06. The Eagles captured back-to-back CIAA championships with consecutive trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs in 2005 and 2006, and were crowned as the black college football national champions following an 11-1 season in 2006.

Oliver started his college coaching career at Delaware State as defensive backs coach and assistant special teams coordinator from 1999-2002. As a student-athlete at NCCU, Oliver twice led the CIAA in punting, including a 41.7-yard average in 1997, which ranks fifth on the Eagles' all-time single season list. As a junior in 1996, he was part of a defensive backfield that led the nation (NCAA Division II) in pass defense efficiency. As a senior, he landed two positions on the All-South Region Team, earning First Team honors as a defensive back and a Second Team selection as a punter.

Among NCCU's career leaders, Oliver ranks 13th with 234 tackles (126 solo), 12th with 31 passes defended (24 pass break-ups and seven interceptions), and fourth with a 39.3-yard punting average. He garnered All-CIAA first or second team honors in each of his four seasons.

Oliver graduated from NCCU in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned a master's degree in criminal justice from Grambling State University in 2010.

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BULLDOGS

HEAD COACH OLIVER “BUDDY” POUGH

Oliver “Buddy” Pough, the all-time winningest coach in school history, is entering in his 20th season as head football coach at South Carolina State, his alma mater. During a 19-year tenure at the school where he earned a bachelor's and a master's, as well as All-MEAC honors as an offensive lineman, Pough has compiled an overall record of 133-74 and a 102-38 MEAC worksheet.

His teams captured two MEAC titles (2008 & 2009) outright, shared four others (2004, 2010, 2013, 2014 and 2019), and made four trips to the prestigious FCS playoffs (2008, 2009, 2010 and 2013).

SC State had its best turnaround in 2013 with a 9-4 overall, 7-1 MEAC record after suffering their first losing season under Pough at 5-6 overall and 4-4 in the MEAC in 2012. In 2011, the Bulldogs compiled a 7-4 overall worksheet and were 6-2 in the MEAC. During the 2010 season, Pough's team finished 9-3 and was 7-1 in the MEAC to tie for the championship after winning the title outright in both 2009 and 2008. His squad also earned its third straight berth to the FCS playoffs and finished the 2010 campaign ranked high in all of the HBCU and Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) polls.

In 2009, S.C. State was named National Black Champion by the Sheridan Broadcasting Network, the 100 Percent Wrong Club of Atlanta, the Washington (DC) Pigskin Club and the Box-to-Row /BASN. In addition, the Bulldogs finished number seven in all three major FCS polls – The Sports Network, the FCS Coaches Poll and Any Given Saturday.

Pough's 2009 squad finished 10-3 overall, captured its second consecutive MEAC crown with an unblemished 8-0 record and made back-to-back appearances in the FCS playoffs. The Orangeburg native reaped Coach of the Year honors in the MEAC -- his second in as many seasons -- and also earned the accolade from The (Columbia, SC) State newspaper, the Washington Pigskin Club, the 100 Percent Wrong Club of Atlanta and the Orangeburg Touchdown Club.

His 2008 squad was just as impressive, finishing 10-2 and winning the MEAC title with an 8-0 mark, the team's first outright title in 14 seasons, and returning to the FCS playoffs for the first time since the 1982 campaign.

Pough became the 14th head football coach at South Carolina State, while posting a 7-5 overall record and a 4-4 mark in the MEAC in his inaugural season in 2002. In 2003, he guided the Bulldogs to an 8-4 overall record and a 6-2 mark in MEAC play, losing only to Hampton and Bethune-Cookman.

The 2004 season can be considered another one of the team's best under Pough, as the Bulldogs produced the first-of-two consecutive 9-2 seasons. SC State was 6-2 in MEAC play that season, tying the Hampton Pirates for the 2004 championship.

In 2005, Pough's team duplicated the 9-2 record of the previous year and improved to 7-1 in the MEAC, with the lone league loss coming at the hands of eventual champion and nationally-ranked Hampton.

Followed by a couple of 7-4 records in 2006 and 2007, the Bulldogs had 10 win seasons in each of the next two campaigns -- 2008 (10-3) and 2009 (10-2). SC State was also a perfect 8-0 in the MEAC both years.

Pough has coached a number of players who have gone on to play in the National Football League, including nine who are currently on NFL rosters -- Joe Thomas (Houston), Javon Hargrave (Philadelphia), Temarrick Hemingway (Washington), Alex Taylor (Cleveland), Antonio Hamilton (Tampa Bay), Alex Brown (Detroit) and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year Darius Leonard (Indianapolis).

Ryan Stanley -- QB, Florida A&M
2019 MEAC Offensive Player of the Year

Darius Royster -- DL, North Carolina Central
2019 MEAC Defensive Player of the Year

Florida A&M quarterback Ryan Stanley and North Carolina Central defensive lineman Darius Royster were named the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year for the 2019 season as part of the conference's partnership with the National Football Foundation (NFF).

The announcement was made in New York, N.Y. during the 62nd annual NFF and College Football Hall of Fame press conference on Dec. 10, 2019.

Stanley had led the Rattlers to a 9-2 overall record in 2019 and the program's first national ranking since 2009. The Pembroke Pines, Fla. native was the top passer in the MEAC that year, averaging over 256 yards per game. He has broken four program career records at Florida A&M, setting new marks for passing touchdowns, passing completions, passing attempts and passing yards. He threw for 2,566 yards and 23 touchdowns this season and had three 300-yard games, including a 427-yard outing against South Carolina State. A First Team All-MEAC selection, he was also on the Watch List for the Walter Payton Award and a finalist for the Black College Football Player of the Year award.

Royster, the second MEAC Defensive Player of the Year from North Carolina Central (the first since Alexander Jones won the award back in 1971), was a terror in the backfield for the Eagles during the 2019 season. He tied for the MEAC lead in both sacks and tackles for a loss. The Chesapeake, Va. native was in the top 15 in the conference in overall tackles with 75 and ranked 22nd in all of FCS in sacks and tied for 33rd in tackles for loss. He also forced three fumbles for an Eagles defense that was second in the MEAC and tied for 27th in the nation with 23 takeaways, and he was a First Team All-MEAC selection. His 75 tackles in 2019 were the most among NCCU defensive linemen in 25 years.

For each of the past four seasons the MEAC has held a football season, the conference has named its Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year in partnership with the NFF. Presented annually since 1971, the MEAC Players of the Year awards are voted on by the MEAC head football coaches and sports information directors.

2019 SEASON IN REVIEW

North Carolina A&T State and South Carolina State shared the MEAC hardware following the 2019 regular season, both going 6-2 in league play, but the Aggies once again booked their trip to Atlanta, Ga., to compete in the Celebration Bowl thanks to a 22-20 win over the Bulldogs in the beginning of November.

The Aggies then defeated Alcorn State 64-44 in Mercedes-Benz Stadium to once again claim the Celebration Bowl -- their third such title in as many years and fourth in the bowl game's five-year existence -- and earn the title of Black College Football National Champions.

Florida A&M quarterback Ryan Stanley was named MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, while North Carolina Central linebacker Darius Royster earned Defensive Player of the Year honors. Both players were named and recognized in New York City as part of the MEAC's ongoing partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

South Carolina State quarterback Corey Fields and North Carolina A&T State's Marcus Pettiford were named Rookie of the Year and Offensive Lineman of the Year, respectively, while the Bulldogs' Buddy Pough earned Coach of the Year honors for the third time.

NOTICE ON 2020 SEASON

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the MEAC had originally rescheduled its fall 2020 season to be played in spring 2021.

However, six of the conference's nine football-playing institutions in 2020-21 opted out of the campaign due to concerns over the pandemic (Bethune-Cookman, Florida A&M, Morgan State, Norfolk State, North Carolina A&T State and North Carolina Central), leaving just three programs -- Delaware State, Howard and South Carolina State -- attempting to play games in the spring.

As such, the MEAC announced the suspension of the 2020 football season on Feb. 11. Conference policy states if 50% or more institutions cannot participate in any championship, the championship for that sport will be suspended.

The MEAC had also suspended its cross country and indoor track & field championships for the 2020-21 academic year.

"While it is tremendously disappointing to suspend the spring 2021 football season, it is the right decision with regards to the health and well-being of our student-athletes, coaches, staff and fans," MEAC Commissioner Dennis E. Thomas said in a release at the time. "As I have stated since the beginning of the pandemic, health and safety will continue to be at the forefront of every decision. We support those institutions who will continue to play."

Howard competed in two games in the spring of 2021, with South Carolina State playing four games and Delaware State playing five games.

The MEAC had been granted an automatic qualifier (AQ) to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs for spring 2021, with the cancellation of last year's Celebration Bowl, but since the three programs competing were not able to face each other head-to-head, the MEAC did not meet the criteria for the AQ.

MEAC HOSTS THE PLAYOFFS

Bethune-Cookman (10-2) served as host for the second time in MEAC history when the Wildcats welcomed the New Hampshire Wildcats to Daytona Beach, Fla. in 2010. The Wildcats had previously hosted Florida Atlantic in the 2003 playoffs. Hampton also served as a host in 2006 to the New Hampshire Wildcats while Florida A&M hosted Troy State in the first round in 1998. The 2010 season marked the fourth time in MEAC history that two teams competed in the FCS (formerly I-AA) playoffs. The MEAC has enjoyed five at-large bids to the NCAA FCS (formerly I-AA). Playoffs including Bethune-Cookman (Hampton-automatic berth) in 1993 and Florida A&M in 1997, 1998, and 1999 (Hampton-automatic berth in 97 and 98 (North Carolina A&T-automatic berth in 1999) and South Carolina State in 2010 (Bethune-Cookman-automatic berth). The inaugural I-AA Championship was won by Florida A&M in 1978, a year before the Rattlers joined the MEAC. Prior to 1996, the MEAC only qualified for the NCAA I-AA playoffs in 1978, 1981, 1982, 1986 and 1992.
